PREAMBLE

We, the people of the City of Anaconda and the County of Deer Lodge, State of Montana, in accordance with Article XI, Section 5, of the Constitution of the State of Montana and for the purpose of achieving one community, do adopt this Charter of Anaconda-Deer Lodge County, State of Montana.

ARTICLE I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1.           Name

The name of this local government unit shall be Anaconda-Deer Lodge County.

Section 2.           Status

Anaconda-Deer Lodge County shall have the status of an incorporated municipality and a county.

Section 3.           Boundaries

The boundaries of Anaconda-Deer Lodge County shall be the same as those of Deer Lodge County as described in the laws of Montana.

Section 4.           Charter Supremacy

As provided by Article XI, Section 5, of the Constitutions of the State of Montana, provisions herein establishing executive, legislative, and administrative structure and organization are superior to statutory provisions.

Section 5.           Oath of Office

Before entering upon the duties of office, all Anaconda-Deer Lodge County elected officials shall take and subscribe to the oath of office as follows:

“ I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will Support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States, the constitution of the State of Montana, this Charter, and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity (so help me God).”

ARTICLE II POWERS

Section 1. Declaration of Powers

1. Anaconda-Deer Lodge County shall have all powers not prohibited by the Constitution of the United States of America, the Constitution of the State of Montana, and laws of the State of Montana, or this Charter.
2. Enumeration of rights, powers, or duties in this Charter shall not be considered exclusive or restrictive.

Section 2. Interpretation of Powers

The powers and authority of Anaconda-Deer Lodge County shall be liberally interpreted. Every reasonable doubt as to the existence of a local government power or authority shall be resolved in favor of the existence of that power or authority.

Section 3. Exercise of Powers

All powers of Anaconda-Deer Lodge County belong to the people of Anaconda-Deer Lodge County. The powers shall be exercised by their elected representatives on the Commission.

Section 4. Existing Obligations

Any bon, debt, contract, obligation, or cause of action already accrued or established by the City of Anaconda or the County of Deer Lodge governments shall be unaffected by this Charter.

ARTICLE III COMMISSION

Section 1. Powers

The Anaconda-Deer Lodge County Commission shall be the legislative and policy-making body of Anaconda-Deer Lodge County. Except as otherwise provided by this Charter, the Commission shall exercise all powers of Anaconda-Deer Lodge County which include, but are not limited to, the power:

- A. To adopt ordinances and resolutions.
- B. To raise, borrow, and appropriate money.
- C. To provide for an annual audit and written report of that audit.
- D. To approve and adopt an annual budget.
- E. To adopt and maintain an Administrative Code and a Personnel System.
- F. To review and investigate all fiscal and management operations of the local government.
- G. To establish and prescribe functions of all administrative departments and agencies.
- H. To create, transfer, reorganize, adjust, abolish, or absorb the boundaries of all existing boards, bureaus, commissioners, agencies, special districts, and political subdivisions of the consolidated governments.
- I. To appoint all members of boards and commissions.
- J. To appoint legal counsel to advise the Commission as necessary.

Section 2. Restrictions on the Powers and Duties of the Commission

- 1. The Commission may impose no new form of taxation, including but not limited to sales taxes and income taxes, without approval by the people in a referendum to be held only at a county general election.

2. Neither the Commission nor any of its members may dictate the appointment or removal of any employee whom the Chief Executive or any of his/her subordinates are empowered to appoint.
3. Except for the purpose of inquiry or investigation under this Charter or the Code of local government, the Commission or its members shall deal with the local government employees who are subject to the direction and supervision of the Chief Executive, solely through the Chief Executive, and neither the Commission or its members may give order to any such employee, either publicly nor privately.

Section 3.                   Composition, Terms, and Election

1. The Commission shall be composed of five (5) members and each Commissioner shall have a designated Commission district. Commission districts shall be of as nearly equal population as possible and shall be reapportioned by the Commission within six (6) months after each official United States census.
2. Candidates for each Commission district seat shall reside in that Commission district.
3. Each Commission district nominee shall be selected in the primary election by the voters in that district.
4. Commissioners shall be elected in the general election for a term of four (4) years and shall be elected by the district in which candidates must reside and which are apportioned by populations. At least two (2) Commissioners shall be elected every two (2) years.
5. The office of Commissioner shall be part-time.
6. Elections for the Commission shall be non-partisan.

Section 4. Qualifications, Removal and Vacancy

1. All qualified electors of Anaconda-Deer Lodge County are eligible for election of the Commission.
2. No Commission member shall hold any other elective public office or be employed by Anaconda-Deer Lodge County.
3. The office of Commissioner shall become vacant upon the member's:
  - A. Death
  - B. Resignation
  - C. Loss of eligibility for election
  - D. Violation of any express prohibition of this Charter
  - E. Conviction of a felony by court of competent jurisdiction
4. In the event of a vacancy on the County Commission, the candidate for the vacant commission district receiving the second highest total of votes in the previous election for that district shall assume the office of County Commissioner. In the event that candidate is ineligible, unable or unwilling to assume the office of County commissioner, the remaining commission shall advertise the vacancy, accept applications from eligible citizens, and chose an eligible citizen to fill the vacancy.
5. The Commission shall be the judge of the election and qualifications of its members and of the grounds for removal from office. A member charged with conduct constituting grounds for loss of office shall be entitled to a public hearing on demand and notice of such hearing shall be published in a manner consistent with state law.

Section 5. Compensation

1. The Commission shall set the annual salary of its members by ordinance. The ordinance shall be adopted at least six (6) months prior to the next Commission election and shall not become effective until the date for qualification set by state law, following the next Commission election.
2. In addition to salary, Commission members shall receive actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties of office, as approved by the Commission.

Section 6. Organization and Procedures

1. There shall be a Chairman of the Commission elected by the Commission. The Chairman shall be the official representative of Anaconda-Deer Lodge County and shall have those powers and duties delegated by the Commission.
2. The Commission shall adopt by ordinance a set of written rules to govern its organization and procedures consistent with state law.
3. The Commission shall provide for the keeping of a journal of its proceedings.
4. All meetings shall be open to the public except in such circumstances as are prescribed by state law.
5. All documents and records of the Commission shall be public records and shall be made available for examining and copying.
6. A majority vote of the entire Commission shall be required for all official actions of the Commission. A minimum of four (4) Commission members must be present when official actions are taken by the Commission.

Section 7. County Board, Commissions, and Committees

1. All County Boards, Commissions, and Committees appointed by the county commission shall be established by a separate ordinance. The establishing ordinance for each board shall comply with the following requirements:
  - A. The purpose, powers and duties, membership, and term of office of the board, commission or committee shall be clearly defined.
  - B. The frequency of meetings of the board shall be set forth.
  - C. The duration of existence of the board shall be set forth.
  - D. If the board is required for any purpose by State law, the law shall be referenced on the ordinance.

- E. The ordinance shall specify how often the board, commission, or committee shall be required to report back to the commission.
  - F. The ordinance shall specify whether any staff, employees, or commissioners may serve on the board, commission, or committee and whether any commissioner may chair that board or committee.
2. The Anaconda-Deer Lodge County Commission shall post and advertise all board openings, vacancies and expired terms within 30 days of such vacancies. The Anaconda-Deer Lodge County Commission shall wait 30 days after advertising or posting begins prior to filling such vacancy.
  3. All existing boards must comply with this section by January 1, 1999.

ARTICLE IV
CHIEF EXECUTIVE

Section 1.           Qualifications, Appointments, Removal and Vacancy

1. The Anaconda-Deer Lodge County Chief Executive shall be elected by a plurality vote on a non-partisan ballot for a four (4) year term.
2. All qualified electors of Anaconda-Deer Lodge County are eligible for election to the position of Chief Executive.
3. The Chief Executive shall not hold any other elective public office or be employed by anyone other than Anaconda-Deer Lodge County.
4. The office of Chief Executive shall become vacant upon the Chief Executive's:
  - A. Death
  - B. Resignation
  - C. Loss of eligibility for election
  - D. Violation of any express prohibition of this Charter
  - E. Conviction of a felony by a court of competent jurisdiction
5. A vacancy in the office of Chief Executive shall be filled by appointment by the County Commission within 120 days of the announcement of a pending vacancy.
6. In the event of a vacancy, the Commission shall by majority vote of its members, appoint a Chief Executive to fill the vacancy until the next regular election, at which time the remainder of the term of office shall be completed as provided by law.
7. The Commission shall be the judge of the election and qualifications of the Chief Executive and of the grounds for removal from office. A Chief Executive charged with conduct constituting grounds for loss of office shall be entitled to a public hearing on demand and notice of such hearing shall be published in a manner consistent with state law.
8. By letter filed with the Commission, the Chief Executive shall designate an acting Chief Executive to perform the duties of the Chief Executive during his/her temporary absence or disability.

During such absence or disability, the Commission may revoke such designation at any time, and appoint another officer of the local government to serve until the Chief Executive shall return or his/her disability shall cease.

Section 2. Compensation

The Commission shall set the salary and other conditions of employment of the Chief Executive.

Section 3. Duties

1. The Anaconda-Deer Lodge County Chief Executive shall be the chief administrative officer of the local government and shall be responsible for all administrative functions of Anaconda-Deer Lodge County, unless otherwise provided by this Charter.
